Since the inception of the program, parents have continued to demonstrate the desire for educational choice for their children. We hope that the courts make a decision soon, so that parents may get the answers they seek and guidance on how to proceed with the academic plans for the upcoming school year.”

Families who have already applied during a previous open enrollment period DO NOT need to reapply. For a copy of the Parent Handbook on Nevada ESA program, go to www.nevadatreasurer.gov.
