TREASURER DAN SCHWARTZ PLEASSED WITH TODAY'S ESA RULING

Carson City, NV – Responding to today's ruling in Duncan v. Schwartz by District Court Judge Eric Johnson, State Treasurer Dan Schwartz issued the following statement:

"We are pleased with Judge Johnson's well-considered decision to uphold the constitutionality of Nevada's Education Savings Account program. While the program remains under an injunction issued in Lopez v. Schwartz, today's ruling brings us one step closer to allowing Nevadan parents educational choice opportunities for the upcoming school year. We look forward to the Nevada Supreme Court's final decision."

Our office has received an estimated 6,000 plus applications throughout the past year. All applications received during the enrollment period were date stamped, and will be processed promptly if the injunction is lifted.
