UNCLAIMED PROPERTY ONLINE AUCTION DOUBLES PROCEEDS

Carson City, NV. State Treasurer, Dan Schwartz announced today that the first ever Nevada State Unclaimed Property online auction was a huge success. The auction has more than doubled the amount of money earned since the December 2013 auction.

“The preliminary figures from TNT auction indicate we raised $186,226,” says Treasurer Schwartz. “The last auction we held in 2013 brought in a total of $91,026. We have doubled the proceeds this year by using the new online auction process. This is great news for the rightful heirs, because the proceeds are held in a trust in perpetuity for them. By holding the auction online we were able to reach more buyers throughout Nevada. I want to thank everyone who submitted a bid. We hope they were able to find hidden treasures. As I saw myself, there were many amazing items to be discovered.”

The final amount of the total proceeds may change if payments are not received or rejected for any reason. For more information, please contact Nicolette Johnston at njohnston@nevadatreasurer.gov or 775-684-5771.
